Eastern Lebanon County High School

Myerstown, Pennsylvania

Step By Step

Any worthwhile cause requires diligent effort and sacrifice. We have undertaken the arduous task of receiving an education. Step by step we have risen on the ladder of knowledge. Slowly and tediously we have tried to make our school one of high standards and one of which to be proud. Now we are faced with the many new problems and challenges of today's world. It is imperative that we use our previously acquired knowledge for the advancement of our society. Whatever our individual goal, we must constantly bear in mind that it is impossible to achieve anything significant if it is not achieved step by step.

Alma Mater

To thee dear Alma Mater,
We lift our hearts in song
The knowledge and the glories
The victories go on.
We honor and revere thee,
Recalling days gone by
Our memories live for evermore,
To thee dear Elco High.

MR. LEE ECK

Supervising Principal
Eastern Lebanon County School District

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1966, gratefully dedicate our yearbook, the "Sigma 66," to Mr. Lee Eck, supervising principal of the Eastern Lebanon County Joint School System.

After forty-four years as an administrator of our schools, Mr. Eck will retire on June 30, 1966. During those years he has had to contend not only with problems facing any principal, but also more recently with the forming of a jointure, the building of a new school, equipping and staffing it, and preparing a totally new curriculum. He has surmounted these problems with his excellent administrative ability, determination and foresight, bringing our school to its present excellent standards and enabling the members of our class to meet the challenge of the future.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Walter W. Wertz
High School Principal

What lies ahead in the roadway of life?
How far will it be to the end? How steep?
How rough? Nobody knows.

What is important is to get started. Plan well. Give it all you have. And take it step by step.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

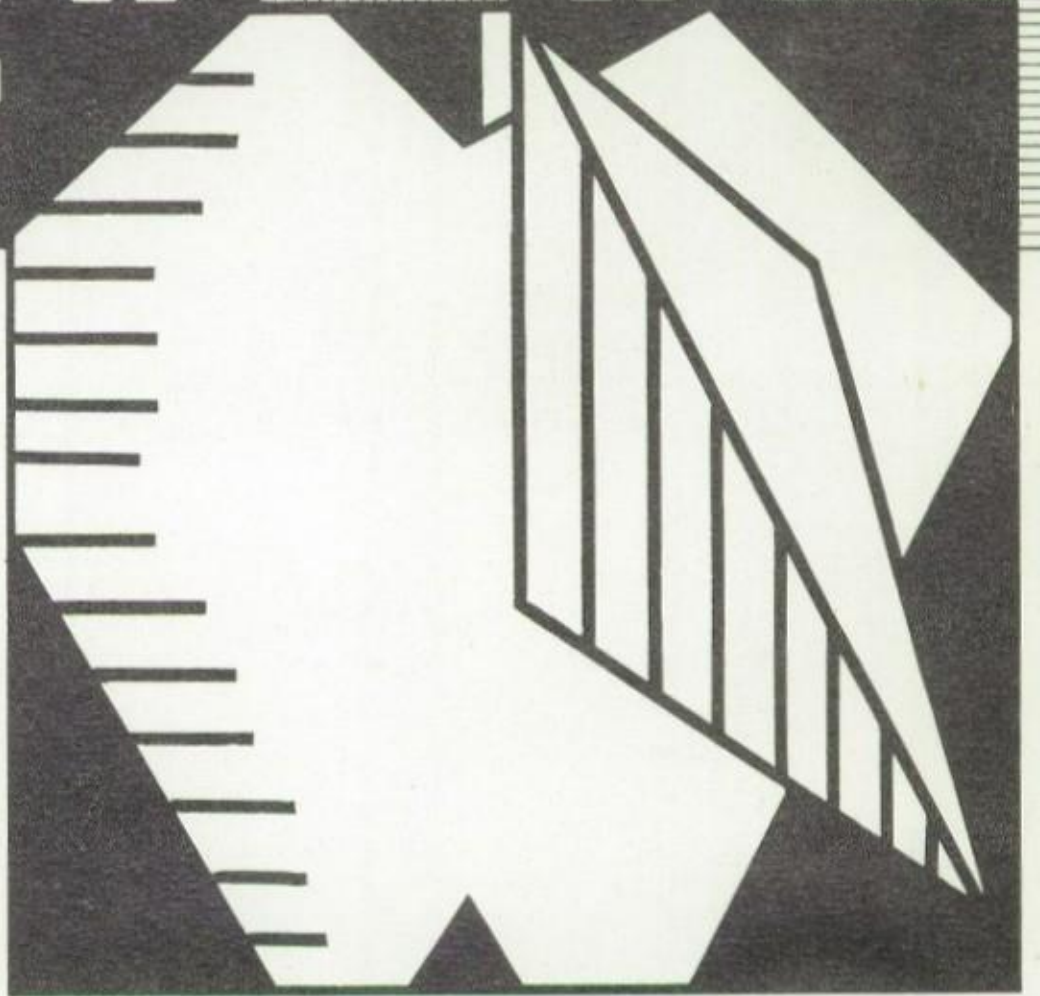

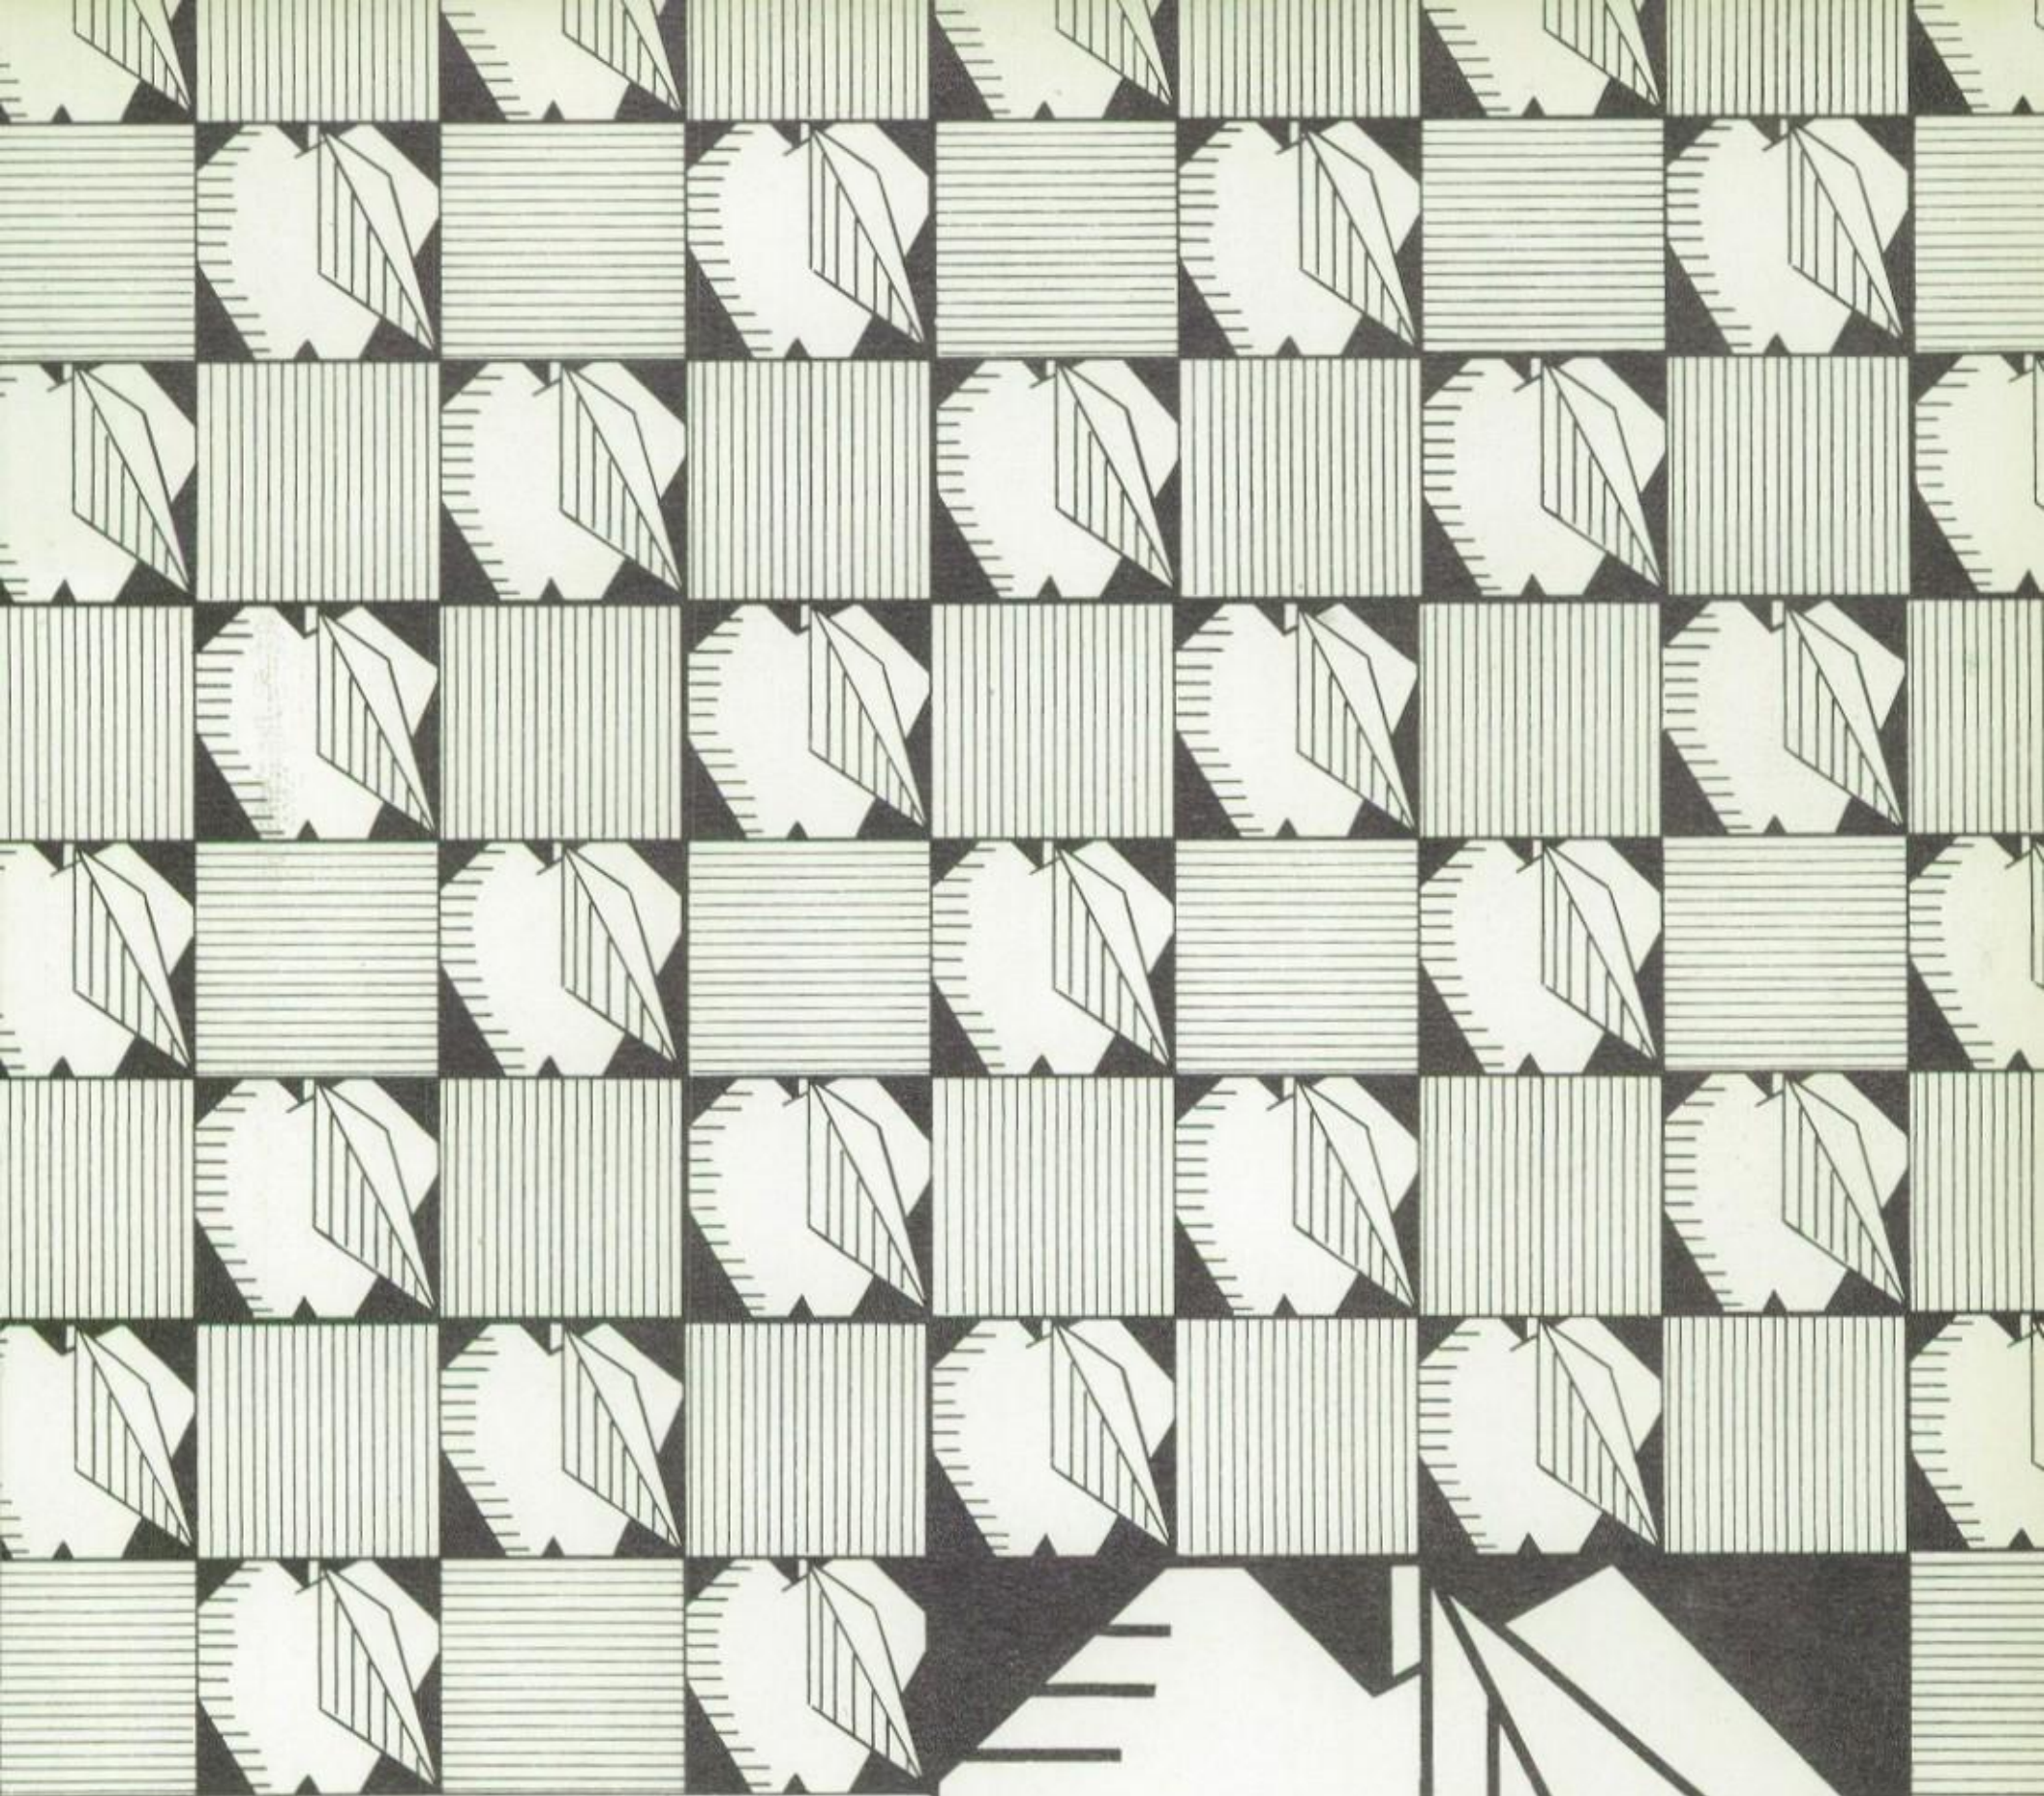

To the class of '66

When at the beginning of your public school education you looked up to those "big" boys and girls in high school, the steps ahead seemed like twelve giant ones. You did not know how you could climb from where you were to where they were, because your legs were so short. But you did; and as you look back, the strides do not seem nearly so enormous.

Up to this point you have been stepping in the footprints of designated leaders — your parents, your teachers and others. The path, for the most part has not been of your own choosing. High school graduation, however, is like a fork in the road. To be sure, you will still be walking in another's footprints, but largely the choice is yours.

Your Board of Education has endeavored to lay the course with due responsibility. We commend you for taking the steps to completion and hope that all succeeding steps shall be taken with conviction and firmness.

CLASS PROPHECY

Late one night the entire graduating class of Elco High School went to see a little, shrivled-up, old, Gypsy fortune teller. Their purpose was to determine what they would be doing in the future, after their graduation. The large silent circle of students clustered around the stooped form of the old lady sitting in front of her tent. Before her was a brilliant crystal ball. She gazed intently into the ball for several seconds and then raised her head. She stared hard at the class for several seconds then her cracked lips parted and she spoke with the wisdom of the ages.

"I see," she said in a high, shrill voice, "Buzzard May as head dance instructor at the Dietrich Memorial Ballet School and five former soccer players named Joel Miller, Snap Zimmerman, Eric Ream, Harold Haag, and Harry Walmer attending classes there."

"Five girls are still in charm school — Esther Salem, Jackie Lutz, Bonnie Hippert, Sandy Shanaman, and Sue Ebling."

"I see a barber shop/hair salon run by Lynn Ondrusek, Jim Strobel, and Linda Rhoads. There are six customers inside named Steve Scipioni, Jay Kegerreis, Kerry Batdorf, Donald Sands, Glenn Smith, and Lee Strause."

"I hear a radio playing in the shop. I hear a big record sung by the Idle-Vise Singers whose members are Mike Huber, Nancy Ziegler, Irene Long, and Anne Strickler. I hear a hymn sung by a church choir next. The choir is directed by Janie Yeagley with Carolyn Sonnon playing the piano. Two of the singers are Brenda White and Karen Weik."

"I hear next on the radio a sports show. The sportscaster is Bill Forry, I hear that five former students were at a Jockey Union banquet. They are Gery Foulk, Ralph Miller, Dennis Fertig, Bill Snoke and Paul Schaeffer."

"I hear at Wimbledon, two former students face each other — Park Haverstick and Larry Strauss."

"I see the annual Olympics being held in Moscow. Several former students have gotten gold medals. Gary Miller is receiving one in pole vaulting, Sally Botz is receiving one for swimming, and Charlie Weigley is receiving one for the 180 meter race."

"I see a baseball game. Three great players are playing. Ed Swisher, Monk Troutman, and the pitcher, Tom Goodison. The president of the National League is talking about Tom. — "He's a good pitcher when it comes to milk."

"I see the Inquirer track meet in Philadelphia. Four girl runners have just beat out all others and took the first four places in the women's 100 meter. They were Sally Ressler, Sylvia Weaver, Karen Angstadt, and Lorraine Weidman."

"I see an American girls hockey team touring Europe. It's being managed by Carol Bucher. Two former Elco players are on the team — Yvonne Hoffman and Janie Bucher."

"I see Jimmy Gible has just won the PGA. Sandy Brightbill has just bowled a perfect game at Highway Lanes, Myerstown."

"I see George Jury, David Bucher, and Charlie Hibshman lining up their cars at the Indy 500."

"I see a demolition derby. Four drivers have been battling for three hours. Rex Border, Howard Kramer, Jeff Erhart, and Lyle Bashore."

"I see a library. Three people are working there as librarians — Jean Bucks, Jean Frysinger, and Brenda Kurtz. I see several people studying diligently in the library. They are John Shaeffer, Robert Walker, Danny Snyder, Bill Zerbe, and Larry Miller. Danny is still studying English for Mr. Paine."

"I see two partners in the shoe business. Ed Digiacomo is making them and Shell Zimmerman is selling them."

"I see two brand new owners of Willow Lake — Nancy Layser and Theresa Herr. I see Tootie Morris and Ernie Gogets as bouncers there."

"I see Buzzy Levengood as the new auctioneer at Buffy's Auction and I see Louie Kreiser buying all the fine merchandise he can afford."

"I see Harry Light playing Santa Claus at an orphanage run by Donna Yoder."

"I see a dairy owned by Dennis Mock with Ronald Risser and Carl Weaver as the two milkers and David Miller driving the milk truck."

"I see Maynard Laudermilch working as a mechanic at Webber's Garage now being run by Clair Hess."

"Jean Harnish is still in a grocery store but she has formed a partnership with George Heisey who used to run a soda fountain."

"I see the FBLA is still in operation. The new leaders of it are Joann Houtz and Marion Hess."

"I see Arni Magnusson as ambassador to the U.N. from Iceland."

"I think I see Carol Rabold sitting in a garbage truck. Can that be possible?"

"Danny Heinz is on Broadway! He's backstage as head of the stage crew."

"I see the White Swan is under new ownership. The co-owners are Joann Sobolewski and John Kantnor."

"I see a lot of former students are married. They are Jim Hoffman, Becky Hertzog, Sandy Gibble, Marcia Tobias, and Ronald Shuey."

"I see the Dixie is now owned by Dennis Ziegler and Ron Davis. The Twin Kiss is also under new ownership. It's owned by Cookie Gillen and Betty Hibshman."

"I see Janie Hixenheiser is helping some guy named Dennis launch rockets."

"I see a parade approaching. There's the Hershey Chocolateers with Larry Wealand playing the lead bugle, here comes the beautiful Linda Klopp who is the new Miss Frystown. Here comes our U.S. senator, Arthur Weaver, and here at the end of the play comes Mr. America — Brian Ream, who is seen flashing his handsome smile."

"I see a huge airliner being piloted by Judy Leffler. The stewardess is Jessica Shamber. She's busy aiding such passengers as Grace Long and Grace Howard, missionaries bound for Africa. There's the famous T.V. personality Lydia Sanger, the famous horse rider Susie Mills, the famous disc jockey from radio station S-I-L-E-N-C-E, Pauline Hummel, the stunt man from Hollywood, Clyde Bender, and Sam Blouch, the black belt karate expert. There's famed opera singer Harriet Eckenroth and the great fly paper maker, Lynn Bugg."

"Jessica stops to talk to a strange looking Indian named Steve Sandrock. He claims it's hardened make-up from some play he was in. Sitting with Steve are Richard Fry and Richard Harper. What's this? The stewardess just slapped that famous casanova Dale Firestine."

"I see two mighty hunters — Robin Hood and Little John, formally known as Gary Stohler and Jerry Daub."

"I see someone following in my footsteps. Olga Illus is going to be a Gypsy fortune teller like me."

"I see John Snoke as the owner of a chain of gas stations."

"I see that Louella Zuck is still knitting away like she was in her senior year."

"I see several accountants working for Mr. Stettler who is now in the Income Tax business. Ellen Weiant is the chief accountant. Donna Garman is the senior accountant. Those talkative Bugg twins, Liz and Sylvia are still making so much noise Mr. Stettler can't think right."

"I see a spy in the great tradition of James Bond, his name is Jeff Page."

"I see Barbara Fetter still trying to play tennis."

"I see the campus of Milton Hershey High School, the principal is that great genius Gary Deck. Out of the doors comes a woman carrying a bucket. Why it's Cindy Reedy the housemother."

"I see the first teenage night club in Lebanon county. It's owned by Julie Pearson. Two dancers working there are Vicki Auman and Cindy Strickler."

"I see a secluded mansion. In it is Elton Gunning the eccentric genius."

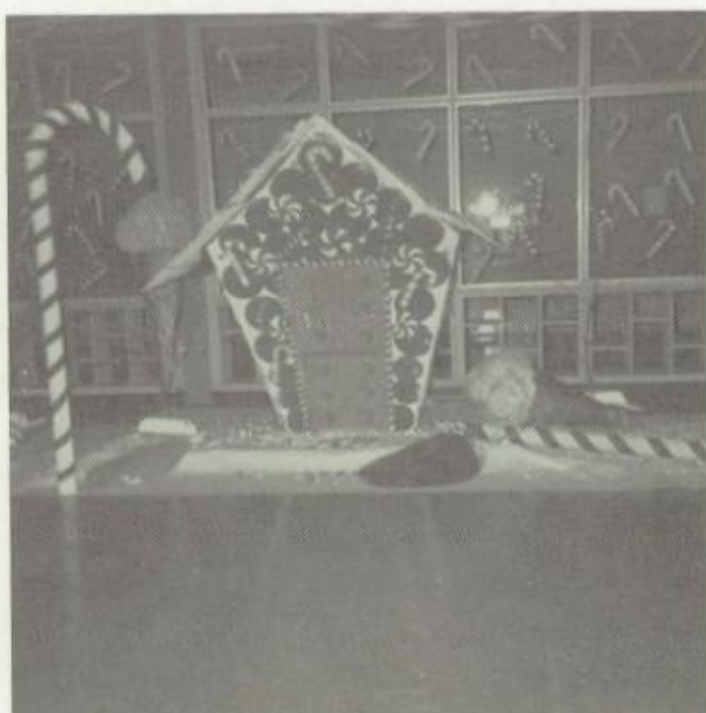

"I see Donna Weik, an interior decorator, now working at one of the biggest firms in New York City."

"I see Karen Bucher and Marjorie Miller as bio-chemists working to produce a termite killer to exterminate the pests that are troubling Tim Haag's Lumber Yard."
